

The Service will be provided with whatever information is available in UNIDO.

c) Cooperation in Portugal will be developed with Portuguese enterprises, banks and other institutions working in the field of industrial co-operation, concerned with the strengthening of industrial co-operation with developing countries, promotion of investment and related technical activities.

d) UNIDO will keep the Republic of Portugal informed of the activities of the Service, through the Permanent Mission of Portugal to UNIDO in Vienna. However, the head of the Service will maintain contacts as appropriate with the Portuguese authorities by addressing himself to the Institute for Economic Cooperation of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. It is understood that the Republic of Portugal will be informed of all investment proposals contained in UNIDO portfolio of investment opportunities.

e) The activities of the Service will take into account existing and planned bilateral promotional activities by the Republic of Portugal.

f) The staff of the UNIDO Service, in addition to its head, will consist of one investment promotion expert, two multilingual secretaries and one messenger/driver to assist in the implementation of the programme.

4 — Special provisions

a) The special purpose contribution of the Republic of Portugal shall be utilized to finance initial expenses, current expenses and salaries and allowances as specified in the attachment to this document.

b) The Government of Portugal will provide office space and furniture through an in-kind contribution.

c) UNIDO will submit the work programme for the second year of the operations of the project by 31 December 1992. The project budget figures for the period of two years are given in the attachment to this project document.

d) The Republic of Portugal and UNIDO will carry out a joint evaluation not later than six months prior to the completion of this project.

e) Not later than six months after the end of the financial year in which UNIDO makes the last disbursement on account of the project, a final report on its implementation, including the final accounts covering the utilization of the special purpose contribution provided by Portugal, shall be submitted by UNIDO to the Republic of Portugal. The final report shall contain the appraisal of the results of the project by UNIDO on the basis of the joint evaluation in accordance with sub-paragraph d) above.
